ACCEPTABLE PATRON BEHAVIOR

It is the policy of the Flower Memorial Library Board of Trustees that library staff will encourage, in a friendly and polite manner, the use and enjoyment of the library.

It is expected that all patrons will exhibit acceptable and legal behavior while using the library. Persons engaging in unacceptable behavior, as determined by the Library Director or other staff in charge, shall be required to leave. Some examples of unacceptable behavior:

- People shall not harass or annoy other patrons or staff.
- Patrons must be appropriately attired, which includes footwear and shirts.
- Personal hygiene shall conform to the generally accepted standard of the community. Patrons whose bodily hygiene is offensive so as to constitute a nuisance to other persons shall be asked to leave the building.
- Patrons are not allowed to eat or drink in the library building except in designated meetings approved by the Administration.
- For the health and safety of our patrons, Flower library adheres to the ADA regulations. No animals, except service animals, are allowed in the library building, other than for sanctioned activities with prior approval from the Administration.
- Photography and filming must be pre-approved by the library.
- Offensive language or actions, rude or lewd comments will not be tolerated.
- Solicitation in any form is forbidden.
- Littering of the building and library grounds is forbidden.
- “Staff Only” restricted areas are accessible only under the supervision or direction of the Library Director or his/her designee.
- Tobacco products and e-cigarette use is prohibited inside the library. Tobacco use is defined to be any tobacco product e.g. cigarettes, cigars, pipes, and tobacco.
- Any carrying device that is brought into the building is subject to search when the person leaves the building. This includes, but is not limited to backpacks, purses, briefcases, etc.

A person who has concerns related to unacceptable patron behavior may fill out an Incident Complaint Form or a Comment Form, both of which are available at the Circulation Desk.

Failure to follow these Rules of Acceptable Patron Behavior will result in action being taken to correct the behavior or end the disturbance. The Library Director or designated senior employee has the right to ban a person from entering the library for an extended period of time because of unacceptable behavior. In all cases when necessary, the Watertown City Police may be summoned to assist in the enforcement of the Rules of Acceptable Patron Behavior.

Library telephones may be made available for patrons for quick, emergency calls.

If requested, library staff will not search for patrons, identify if a patron is in the library, give patrons messages or reveal staff members schedules unless legally required to do so or in an emergency situation.

Adopted by the Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library Board of Trustees, February 11th, 2020

IDENTIFICATION REQUIRED FOR BORROWER'S CARDS

- A. Individuals requesting a library card must live or own property within Jefferson, Lewis, St. Lawrence or Oswego counties.
- B. Primary identification to be used is identification with a picture (preferably a Driver's License), which has the individual's current address. If the address information on the picture ID is not current or existent, then another form of identification must be presented which verifies the individual's address.
- C. Individuals who do not possess a valid picture ID must present two documents (paper or digital) that verify their current address.
- D. Children 11 and under must also be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian. The parent or legal guardian must present identification as outlined previously in this policy if they do not have a library card on record.
- E. Individuals who are living in this area temporarily or cannot obtain a library card are to be accorded "DEPOSIT ACCOUNT" status and must leave a cash deposit of $25.00. This deposit will allow those individuals to borrow two (2) items from the library. At the return of those two (2) items, another two (2) items may be borrowed, and so on. The deposit fee is returned at the time the individual ceases to borrow materials. Patrons have 6 months after their last book is returned to claim the cash deposit for the Deposit Account. After 6 months, the money becomes a donation to the library.

Patrons may complete a form which allows another person (caregiver or spouse for example) to pick up that patron's holds and check out the items.

Lost/Damaged Cards: Patrons will be charged a $1.00 fee for the first 3 replacement Universal Library cards that are lost or damaged. Thereafter, the card replacement charge will be $5.00 per card.

Renewal Date for Library Cards: Expiration dates for library cards will be one year. Most renewals will require only a confirmation of contact information.

LENDING RULES & PROCEDURES

All other materials may be renewed up to two times (if no other patron has requested the item).

A borrower's privileges are suspended whenever there are 5 or more items overdue or when the amount of fines reaches $2.00 or more.

Bankruptcy

Flower Memorial Library recognizes the importance of library access to all members of the community, regardless of financial status. However, this philosophy must be balanced against the reality that some patrons, for various reasons, do not pay their debts to the library and the library suffers financially as result.

In cases where a patron has declared bankruptcy, the library acknowledges that it is legally barred from collecting the debt. Given that fact, when the library receives confirmation of a patron's bankruptcy as evidenced by a court decree, then that patron will be limited to two checkouts at a time. If the patron chooses, by their own initiative to pay the debt, then full borrowing privileges will be restored to that patron.

After one year, the patron may request a review of their account by the Library Director to determine if full borrowing privileges could be restored.

Item limits for certain materials

There is an overall limit of 20 items per library card. New patrons will be limited to a 2 item checkout for the first three months. After that, if they are a patron in good standing, they will be allowed the normal limit.

Watertown patrons 65 years of age or older and teen patrons are considered "fine-free". Some organizations may also be created as "fine-free" based on the determination by the Library Director. For these groups, fines will not be charged for overdue items checked out at our library other than for Due North/OCLC (interlibrary loan) items. If an item is not returned within 45 days, or is lost or damaged, a bill will be generated and the patron will be responsible for payment for the item. Abuse of this privilege will result in loss of fine-free status.

Loan limits are on the following:

- 2 Civil Service Test books
- 5 Periodicals (Adult)
- 5 Periodicals (Juvenile)
- 5 DVDs
- 3 Music CDs
- 2 Adult Multimedia Kits – (i.e. Great Courses DVDs)
- 1 Empire Pass
- 1 Talking is Teaching Literacy kit

The library reserves the right to adjust the number of items circulated to an individual by subject, format, or other criterion, as may be deemed appropriate in specific instances.

Requests/Holds

Persons may request an item in person, over the phone or via the on-line catalog. Items will be held for the patron seven days from when the item is placed on the hold shelf. Patrons are allowed to have a maximum of 10 holds.

Copier Charges

Black and white copies – 20 cents per page

Color copies – 75 cents per page

There is a limit of 50 pages printed per day

Re-Adopted by the Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library Board of Trustees, March 8th, 2022

COMPUTER USE INCLUDING ATTAIN LAB AND WIRELESS NETWORK

A current library card is required for the use of all computers and wireless connections with the exception of the computers in the ATTAIN Lab.

If a patron does not have an NCLS library card and does not live in the area, the library can provide a guest pass for computer or wireless use. The patron must provide identification in order to obtain a guest pass. The guest pass will be good for the remainder of the day, subject to computer use limits.

Use of the computer is on a first-come, first-served basis with a maximum of 120 minutes (2 hours) per day. The Library reserves the right to limit the number of sessions per patron/per day as usage warrants.

In the Computer Area, use is limited to two people at a workstation at a time.

If a patron has a “blocked” or “barred” status, according to library policy, they will not be able to use the library computers or wireless network unless they obtain the Library Director’s approval.

Black and white copies are 20 cents per page.

Color copies are 75 cents per page.

Limit of 50 pages printed per day.

Users may not:

- Use another person’s library card to use library computers or access the wireless network.
- Invade the privacy of others.
- Make any attempt to damage or modify computer equipment or software.
- Engage in any activity that is harassing or defamatory.
- Use the Internet for any illegal activity, including violation of copyright or other rights of third parties, or in a manner inconsistent with the Library’s tax-exempt status or its proper operation.

The library’s Internet workstations are in a public community setting and may not be used for illegal, harmful, or damaging purposes. Furthermore, the computers may not be used to access potentially offensive or inappropriate information or images as determined by the sole discretion of the Director or designee. Filtering software is used to minimize and prevent access to offensive materials or images. Library computers must be used in compliance with these rules and with library policy in general. If a complaint is made, the library may use cameras or monitoring software to view patron’s computers.

Violations and unlawful activities will result in loss of computer privileges or the imposition of a barred status in accordance with library policy.

Access by Minors:

Children's computers have a commercially produced filter which attempts to block inappropriate matter. The filters also prevent access to the following types of websites:

- Chat Rooms, email and other electronic communications.
- Hacking or other websites that allow minors to bypass security measures.
- Facebook and other social media sites.
- Any other sites that may be considered illegal or harmful to minors.

Wireless Network:

The wireless network exists for patrons to access with the appropriate equipment in their laptop computer or other devices. Library staff will provide configuration settings for wireless network setup. However, the user is solely responsible for making these changes on their personal computers or devices.

Wireless network printing is available. Library staff will assist with wireless printing passwords. Files may also be saved to a device or emailed.

Communication via the wireless network should not be considered secure. Laptop users are responsible for selecting and installing security protection and maintaining current antivirus software.

When using the wireless network, library users must use earphones to make the sound inaudible to others.

Access to the library's wireless network is in a public community setting and may not be used for illegal, harmful, or damaging purposes. Furthermore, the library's wireless network may not be used to access potentially offensive information or images as determined by the sole discretion of the Director or designee. Filtering software is used to minimize and prevent access to offensive materials or images. The wireless network must be used in compliance with these rules and with library policy in general. If a complaint is made, the library may use cameras or monitoring software to view patron's computers.

Flower Memorial Library supports and complies with New York State Law (New York State Civil Service Practice Law & Rules 4509, Chapter 112, Laws of 1988) with respect to the confidentiality of library records. All library records relating to an individual patron's use of the library and its resources are confidential. These records may be consulted and used by library staff in the course of carrying out library operations, but will not be disclosed to others except upon the request or consent of the library user, or pursuant to subpoena, court order, or otherwise required by law. Such disclosures required by law, may be made only by the Library Director in consultation with the City Attorney.

REPLACEMENT AND DAMAGED ITEM POLICY

If an item is returned in damaged condition, the library will charge any fees to the account to which the item was checked out. The fees will be based on the amount of damage and the suitability of the item to continue to circulate to other patrons.

Damaged Item Guidelines

Major damage is defined as damage to such an extent that the item cannot be repaired and can no longer be circulated. The replacement cost for the damaged item will be determined by cost of the item. Replacement copies will not be accepted to reduce fees unless prior approval is given by the Library Director.

Moderate damage is defined as damage that will affect the item's suitability for circulation, such as extensive stains, torn pages, or broken spine. The charges for the damage will be determined by the Library Staff based on time and materials replacement costs.

Minor damage is defined as damage where the item can still circulate as is or can be repaired, such as scribbles in the front cover, or the cover needs to be taped.

Only the Library Director may waive or reduce fines, bills or fees.

PUBLIC COMMENT AT LIBRARY BOARD MEETINGS POLICY

The function of the regular meetings of the Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library Board of Trustees is to conduct the business of the Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library.

Although Library Board meetings are public meetings, they are not public hearings. The Board does, however, encourage public attendance at its meetings and provides an opportunity for public comment.

1. Time will be reserved at the beginning of each Library Board meeting for public comment. Public comment is limited to this period.
2. Members of the public who wish to speak are asked to sign in before the meeting begins, identifying themselves and providing their address and group affiliation, if any, to the board before speaking. A sign-in roster will determine the speaking order for people who wish to make a public comment. The names will be called in the order in which they appear on the sign-in sheet.
3. As a courtesy, it is appreciated if notice of an intention to speak at a Board meeting is given to the Library Director in advance of the meeting.
4. The public comment period is limited to 15 minutes in total. Each speaker is allowed a maximum of 3 minutes. The public comment period may be extended by a majority vote of the Library Board.
5. Public comments will be addressed to the entire Library Board but there will not be a response from either Board members or the Library Director.
6. If, at any time, persons appearing before the Library Board exceed the time limitation set forth in this policy or engage in inappropriate language or behavior, it shall be the responsibility of the President to declare that person out of order and to refuse him or her permission to continue to address the Board.
7. Comments made by members of the public become part of the meeting record.

Adopted by the Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library Board of Trustees on March 8th, 2022

INTERLIBRARY LOAN POLICY

- I. Principles
 - a. The Interlibrary loan service supports the mission of the library by providing expanded access to library materials and information. The purpose of interlibrary loan is to obtain materials not available in the library. The library affirms that interlibrary loan is an adjunct to, not a substitute for, the library's collection. In meeting patron needs, the library will exhaust local resources first, including its own collection and those of North Country Library System (NCLS) member libraries where possible, before requesting items on interlibrary loan.
 - b. The Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library endorses the principles relating to interlibrary loan included in the American Library Association (ALA) Interlibrary Loan Code for the United States, the U.S. Copyright Law and U.S. Commission on New Technological Uses of Copyrighted Works (CONTU) Guidelines, and federal and state laws governing confidentiality of records.

- II. Definition
 - a. An Interlibrary Loan request is defined as a request for library materials made on behalf of a Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library patron through other library systems. This does not include holds placed by patrons or staff for materials in automated libraries in the NCLS system.

- III. Patron Status
 - a. Any patron with a “blocked or barred status” will be denied Interlibrary Loan Service.
 - b. Patrons must renew or return overdue materials or pay bills before placing Interlibrary Loan requests.

- IV. Borrowing Rules
 - a. Two active requests are permitted at any one time per patron for OCLC and DueNorth requests. The Library Director may allow exceptions to this limit. A request is active from the time it is initiated until the item has been returned and checked in at the lending library and the record has cleared.
 - b. Materials will be available for pickup for one week after they are processed.
 - c. Interlibrary Loan materials are checked out for 28 days or for a period stipulated by the lending library. Items may be recalled at any time by the owning library.
 - d. Interlibrary Loans may not be renewed.
 - e. Requests to borrow textbooks from other institutions will not be filled.

- V. Charges
 - a. The library does not charge fees for requests that are filled through the Northern New York Library Network Interlibrary Loan Service and are delivered using the NCLS delivery service.
 - b. The library always borrows from libraries who lend free of charge. Patrons are notified that their hold is available in one of three ways:
 - 1. Patrons can call the library
 - 2. Patrons can sign into their account online to review status
 - 3. Patrons will receive a phone call or an email notification if their email address is provided.

Re-Adopted by the Flower Memorial Board of Trustees, on May 11th, 2021

REFERENCE SERVICE POLICY

The reference desks are located on the upper level and lower level of the library. The reference desk on the upper level is staffed on nights and weekends. If the Reference Librarian is busy or unavailable, patrons may leave a message if calling, email or write down their questions and the Librarian will contact the patron with the answer later.

Reference Librarians:

- Will provide information in the form of short answers to specific questions and guidance in locating current, accurate, information for patrons who appear in person, call on the telephone or request information via mail, email or social media. Priority is given to in person requests. Answering inquiries has priority over other duties.
- Will assist patrons in the use of the Library and teach basic research methodology, when appropriate. This includes providing help in developing a research strategy and advice on whether a trip to the Library would be worthwhile.
- Will provide bibliographic verification of items both in the Library and not owned by the Library and will assist patrons in submitting requests through interlibrary loan when appropriate.
- May refer library users to other agencies and libraries in pursuit of needed information.
- Information, particularly in the subject areas of law, medicine, consumer information, religion, politics, and personal finance/tax information, is presented without interpretation, advice, analysis, or personal recommendation.
- May use not only the Library's resources in printed form, but consult appropriate digital resources as well as the regional resource library and other agencies by telephone in pursuit of "ready reference" information.
- May not assist patrons in areas where confidentiality is an issue. These situations include Social Security numbers, personal medical records, personal financial information, email accounts and passwords.
- Will assist patrons using technology available unless the situation compromises the integrity of the library's computer systems. These situations include sending an email for a patron, connecting laptops to the network via cables, etc.
- Will assist patrons with technology issues by making suggestions only.
- Will treat all reference questions with a nonjudgmental and confidential manner.
- Will provide information and assist patrons as time allows. If a patron has a complicated research question or a list of questions or if there are several patrons who need assistance at the same time, the librarian may need to schedule a follow-up time to answer the patron's questions.

Reference computers are available for the public to use for special requirements such as taking tests, or using the microfilm scanners and other special hardware. For any other uses, there are public computers available on the main level.

COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT

The purpose of a Collection Development Policy is to provide the public with an understanding of the scope and nature of the library's collection and explain the criteria used in building a collection that supports and expresses the library's commitment to meeting the needs of the community it serves. It is based on the library's (mission) community input and the service role of the library. Community, in the case of Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library, is the citizens of the Watertown area, and, in our role as Central Library of the North Country Library System, the residents of the surrounding counties which comprise the system's service area. The library provides current, high-interest materials in a variety of formats for people of all ages and actively encourages the use of collections, which are both recreational and support life-long learning. Instilling a love of reading in children is a high priority, as is supplementing the educational needs of patrons and furnishing timely, accurate information on a variety of topics. Library materials, including increasingly important electronic resources, reflect a variety of opinions, stimulate self-understanding and growth, enhance job-related knowledge and skills and increase knowledge of and participation in the affairs of the community, the nation and the world.

The Board is charged with being ultimately responsible for the selection of all materials in the collection. The Board has chosen to delegate full responsibility for the selection of all materials to the Director of the Library. Under the authority of the Board, the Director and the Librarians select and deselect library materials.

Principles

Materials are selected and retained on a basis of their content and overall value. Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library represents all points of view and the library, as much as is possible, is a reflection of the community and its diversity. It also seeks to advance awareness of those cultures, traditions and ideas not represented in the local community. The selection principles promote the American Library Association's "Library Bill of Rights" and interpretations, "Freedom to Read Act," "Freedom to View Act," "Intellectual Freedom Statement," and "ALA guidelines for Access to Electronic Information."

General Criteria

A policy cannot replace the judgment of individual librarians but only provides guidelines to assist them in choosing from the vast array of available materials. In selection, the librarian uses professional judgment and expertise, based on understanding of user needs and a knowledge of authors and publishers. Flexibility, open-mindedness, and responsiveness to the changing needs of the community are a necessity. Considerations include:

- Appropriateness to library's mission
- Contemporary significance
- Popular demand (including requests by patrons and staff)
- Suitability of subject and style for intended audience
- Insight into human and social conditions
- Accuracy and authoritativeness
- Appropriateness and effectiveness of medium to content
- Relation to existing collection
- Availability of material elsewhere in the community and through interlibrary loan
- Clarity and logic; comprehensiveness and depth of presentation
- Price, format, suitability of physical form for library use
- Inclusion of work in bibliographies, best lists, indexes

An item need not meet all these criteria in order to be acceptable. When judging the desirability of materials, any combination of standards may be used. More specific guidelines can be found in the special collections section of this policy.

Adult Collections

The Adult Services Librarians have primary responsibility for the selection and maintenance of collections for adult patrons.

A. Fiction

A basic collection of classics and standard titles is maintained. There is no single standard for inclusion in the fiction collection. Because of the large volume of fiction published, it is possible to purchase only a representative selection with emphasis on major authors and the most popular examples of a genre. Patron requests for fiction are purchased whenever possible and influence the addition of more copies. Genre fiction such as mysteries, romances, espionage, horror, thrillers, science fiction, fantasy and westerns are purchased in proportion to demand and circulation statistics. Efforts are made to complete series, purchase award winning titles and to represent local authors, publishers and subject matter. Each work will be judged on its own merits. Preferred fiction will be competently written, have plausible characterizations and give an honest portrayal of the human experience with which it deals.

B. Non-Fiction

The nonfiction collection provides timely, accurate and useful informational materials to support individual and community interests. It emphasizes materials that are current and in high demand. Materials are available for all ages and reading levels in a variety of formats. Materials are selected to represent a continuum of opinions and viewpoints when available. Titles with continued value and those of current, accepted authority are part of the library collection. As a new field emerges, the library responds with timely additions. General treatment is preferred unless there is an identified need for in-depth treatment of a subject area. Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library emphasizes non-scholarly materials and relies heavily on interlibrary loan for academic and in-depth coverage of subject matters.

C. Reference and Electronic Information Resources

Most reference materials may be checked out. They provide quick, concise and up-to-date information. Included are indexes, encyclopedias, biographical resources, dictionaries, almanacs and directories.

Selection criteria for printed Reference resources include:

- authoritativeness
- demands on subject area which circulating collection cannot meet
- ease of use
- format
- frequency of use
- scope and depth of coverage

Additional selection criteria for electronic and emerging formats include:

- availability of adequate startup and continuing funding

- capability for information to be downloaded
- capability for networked distribution
- demand for format in community
- durability of format for library use
- logical operation and ease of use for public and staff
- impact on equipment, staff, storage and space
- reduction/replacement of in print or other format materials
- suitability for direct public access
- technical quality of production or reproduction
- timeliness in updating information

D. Periodicals and newspapers

Periodicals are an important source of new ideas, topics, and consumer information as well as being in demand as recreational reading material. Therefore, Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library subscribes to approximately 50 periodicals and newspapers. The periodicals collection is reviewed yearly for additions and deletions. Electronic access to periodicals is an increasingly important resource. The same selection criteria apply to these materials as to similar materials in print format.

E. Audio and Visual materials

The same selection criteria apply to AV materials as to similar materials in print format.

Additional selection criteria include:

- technical quality of audio and visual reproduction
- presentation or experience that is unique to format and provides an alternative to print
- significance of performance or diversity in interpretation
- critical acclaim as demonstrated in awards, nomination for awards, and/or reviews by the performing arts community
- suitability to be circulated or housed in a sturdy, safe and convenient manner

Audios and videos are protected by copyright and are intended for home use only.

Children and Teen Collections

The Children's Librarians have primary responsibility for the selection and maintenance of collections for patrons from infancy through sixth grade as well as fiction for young adults, and the types of professional reference material described below. The diverse constituency served includes preschool children cared for at home as well as in day cares and preschools, public, private, and home school students, college students of children's literature, adults who share literature with children, and adults who enjoy children's literature.

Selection Criteria of Materials for Youth:

- Materials which meet the particular developmental needs of youth at different stages
- Age and interest appropriate content and presentation
- Emphasis on quality, critically acclaimed materials as demonstrated in awards specialized bibliographies, and/or reviews
- Quality and aesthetics of illustrations to stimulate the imagination
- Information and stories, which represent a spectrum of family styles and values

- Materials which represent the richness and diversity of the youth's local and world community
- Awareness of curriculum-based needs of public, private, and home school students as well as college children's literature students and Child Development Associate candidates
- Awareness of high-demand materials for use with children in preschool classrooms

Collection Maintenance

Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library recognizes the need for ongoing evaluation of its collections to assure provision of inviting and accessible items. This ongoing maintenance includes weeding, replacement, and repair.

A. Weeding Guidelines:

Discard:

- Materials with obsolete content
- Materials which are infrequently used
- Materials in poor or irreparable physical condition
- Older editions of encyclopedias, almanacs, directories, and standard texts (encyclopedias should be no older than 5 years in the reference collection)
- Materials which are incomplete sets in which items missing seriously impair their usefulness
- Materials that have no anticipated use
- Works containing information that has been superseded or presented in newer, more comprehensive or more accessible formats

Weeded items will be disposed of by recycling, placed on the free cart or sold depending on subject matter and condition.

B. Retention Guidelines:

Retain:

- Works containing useful local information
- Primary works in particular disciplines or topics
- Works identified as core collection items
- Works representative of an era, trend or movement which provide unique coverage
- Works listed in standard or authoritative up to date bibliographies regularly used by staff and public
- Replacement of desired item is not possible
- The most cost-effective option is selected when making replacement versus repair decisions

Censorship and Reconsideration of Library Materials

This Board believes that the only acceptable censorship is self-censorship, therefore, it is the intent of the Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library Board of Trustees that no challenged library material shall be removed from the collection except upon court order, and after adversary proceedings in which the Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library Board defends inclusion of the material, unless said material was placed in the collection in violation of this policy. There is a citizen's request form available to fill out and give to the Library Director.

REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION OF LIBRARY MATERIALS POLICY

The Flower Memorial Library subscribes to the American Library Association's Library Bill of Rights, which states in part, that "Books and other library resources shall be provided for the interest, information, and enlightenment of all people of the community the library serves. Materials shall not be excluded because of the origin, background, or views of those contributing to their creation." The Library Bill of Rights continues by saying that "Libraries should provide materials and information presenting all points of view on current and historical issues. Materials should not be proscribed or removed because of partisan or doctrinal disapproval." It is the Flower Memorial Library's responsibility to provide resources on many subjects, from multiple viewpoints, appealing to the public's diverse interests and tastes.

If you wish the Library to reconsider the purchase of a particular item you must complete and sign the Request for Reconsideration of Library Materials form. When the Library Director receives the form he or she will appoint an ad hoc committee of 4-5 members of the professional staff, including the Director and the librarian who initiated the order. The committee will examine the item in its entirety, taking into consideration the original reasons for purchase, and evaluate the item in light of the Library's selection policy, the Library Bill of Rights, and the item's critical reception. After the item has been thoroughly and objectively reviewed, taking into consideration the complainant's objections, the committee will respond in writing.

If the complainant wishes to appeal the decision of the staff committee he or she may do so to the Board of Trustees. The appeal must be submitted in writing and will then be placed on the agenda of the next regularly scheduled Board meeting. The complainant will be given the opportunity to state his or her case to the full Board, who will take the information under advice. The Board President will then appoint an ad hoc committee of three to five Board members and the Library Director to examine the item in question. The ad hoc committee will review the item and make a recommendation to the full Board at the next regularly scheduled meeting. The decision of the Board is final.

CHILD BEHAVIOR AND SUPERVISION

The Library has a responsibility to provide an environment that is safe and comfortable for every patron who appropriately uses its services and facilities.

The Library Board and staff are eager for children to use the library and welcome those who do so. Service to children is an important part of the Library's mission. The Library is free and open to unaccompanied children who are independent enough to use the resources for recreation, information and education. Children under the age of 8 must remain with their parent/caregiver. Children 08-11 years old may be in the library if the parent/caregiver is in the building. Children 12 and over may be in the library unaccompanied. However, based on behavior, staff may ask parents to remain with their children regardless of age.

Parents should be aware that the Library is a public building open to all individuals. It is not the Library staff's function or purpose to provide supervision or to care for children while parents or caregivers are inside or outside the Library. Staff will not monitor children leaving the library.

Adult patrons who are not actively seeking children's materials and linger in the Children's Room without a child will be asked to leave. This is for the safety of all children.

The following policy has been designed to communicate the Library Board's concern for the safety and welfare of the children it serves.

Unattended Children

1. At all times, caregivers are responsible for the conduct and safety of their children on Library premises.
2. Caregivers are expected to be aware of the opening and closing times of the Library, bearing in mind that these can and do change. Power failures or other emergencies can occur and require unexpected closing of the building. Children left alone in the Library, or on Library grounds, could be vulnerable. Every effort will be made to contact the parents or guardians prior to closing.
3. If a child is left at the Library after closing time, or as the result of an emergency closing, the police will be called. Under no circumstances will a staff member take a child out of the building or transport children to another location. The police department, County Department of Social Services, or a juvenile welfare-related agency may be called if children under 12 years of age are left unattended in front of the building prior to regular opening time or have been left unattended in the building.
4. Children are expected to adhere to the same standards of conduct expected of adults. All Library users are required to respect Library property and to act in a manner appropriate to the use and function of the Library. (see Library Behavior Policy and Procedures). Children who are not using the Library appropriately or who require excessive staff attention or supervision, will be asked to leave the Library.

TEEN SPACE AND BEHAVIOR

The Teen Space was created for the Library's teen patrons, defined as patrons aged 12-18, as they age out of the Children's Room. Their environment is designed to meet their informational and social needs in a safe, supportive, and positive manner.

- Patrons using The Teen Space, like any other space in the library, are expected to follow the "Acceptable Patron Behavior" policy of the Library.
- The Teen Space is open during all library hours and all patrons may browse the shelves and/or check out materials from The Teen Space.
- When school is not in session, to include after school/ snow/ scheduled days off following Watertown City School District's calendar, only teens are allowed to hang out/spend time in The Teen Space. Exceptions are made by the Reference Librarians or Director based on special circumstances or needs. Teens will always have a priority.
 - During this time, adult patrons who are not actively seeking Young Adult materials and linger in The Teen Space will be asked to relocate to another section of the library. This also includes patrons older than 18 who are accompanying a teen.
 - During this time, parents, guardians, and caregivers are encouraged to utilize the seating outside The Teen Space to keep an eye on their teen(s).
 - During this time, patrons younger than 12 are allowed in The Teen Space in the company of a teen.
- Parents, guardians, and caregivers should be aware that the Library is a public building open to all individuals. It is not the Library staff's function or purpose to provide supervision or to care for teens while parents are inside or outside of the Library. Staff will not monitor teens' use of the library beyond ensuring compliance with Library policies.
- Patrons using computers in The Teen Space are expected to follow the "Computer Use Including ATTAIN Lab and Wireless Network" Policy of the Library.
- The Library reserves the right to utilize The Teen Space for scheduled programs, events, and gaming activities.

LINKS FROM THE LIBRARY'S WEB SITE

The Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library web site is an online source of information for staff and patrons of the Library. Included on the website is a limited number of links to other web sites chosen because these links have been useful to staff in answering patron questions. These sites are selected to enrich, broaden, and complement the print and audiovisual library materials available and must be consistent with the Library's Collection Development Policy criteria.

Resources are constantly changing on the Internet. Since these linked sites are not under the control of the Library, they may change or disappear over time. New links will be added and current links evaluated regularly based on the Collection Development Policy criteria.

Re-Adopted by the Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library Board of Trustees, May 11th, 2021

General Guidelines

- Meeting rooms at the Library are meant to be used for informational, educational, cultural, and civic needs including activities such as discussion groups, panels, lectures, conferences, seminars, exhibits, displays, story times, puppet shows, and films.
- In order to reserve a library meeting room for public use, the business, individual or organization may be required to obtain insurance. Any activities beyond routine library usage will require insurance unless the Library Director or his/her designee determines otherwise.
- Groups of ten (10) or more must use off-site parking.
- The library reserves the right to refuse facility use for activities that infringe upon, delay, or conflict with library objectives.
- The number of occupants must be limited to the safe capacity of the meeting space.
- Although a meeting space might be available for use on the date of the requested event, an organization may be denied use under the following circumstances:
 - Damage to library property from prior room use.
 - Failure to make restitution for cost of damages to library property from prior room use.
 - Violation of one or more of the library policies/regulations regarding facility use.
- Meeting room use after library hours is prohibited unless approval obtained from the Library Director. Fees may apply.
- There is no charge for meeting room use by nonprofit groups. For-profit groups which meet more than once a month at the library will be charged a fee of $20 for use of the Old Watertown Room or 1812 Room and $50 for use of the South Reading Room or Community Room.
- The use of a meeting room does not constitute Library or City of Watertown endorsement of viewpoints expressed by participants in the program. Advertisements or announcements implying such endorsement are not permitted.
- Solicitation, admission or other charges, money-raising activities, and/or sales are not allowed.

- Meeting rooms may not be used for religious services. Religious study groups are permitted.
- Functions must end, and meeting rooms vacated, no later than 15 minutes before the library closes.
- All functions will be conducted in a manner not to disturb other patrons in the Library.
- Groups must provide their own meeting supplies. The Library is not responsible for the loss of personal items, equipment or displays used by groups.
- Library needs will preempt any other scheduled event. Nonprofit organizations will preempt any for-profit organizations.
- There is no telephone service in the meeting rooms. Library staff is not available to accept calls or relay messages or page persons using the rooms, except in emergency situations.
- Displays may not be affixed directly to the walls of the meeting room. Library fixtures may not be removed from the walls.
- Due to tight schedules, each organization will be admitted to and must vacate the room at the appointed time.

Political Use:

The Trustees of the Flower Memorial Library believe that as trusted public institutions, libraries play an important role in ensuring that patrons have access to information which allows them to fully participate in civic and political debate, helping them to make informed decisions. The library supports democratic dialogue and wishes to provide time and space for political discourse and the robust exchange of ideas.

Thus, we will allow political meetings if and only if the meeting adheres to the general meeting room policies.

It is essential that any meetings should not have an impact on library staff, library services and operations; affect patrons' experience of library use; or have an effect on the library's reputation in that they might be seen as endorsing the candidate or political party. As stated above, the use of a meeting room does not constitute Library or City of Watertown endorsement of viewpoints expressed by participants in the program. Advertisements or announcements implying such endorsement are not permitted. Violation of this rule will result in the meeting being cancelled.

The Library Director has final discretion in making a determination as to whether or not a meeting meets these requirements.

Reservations:

Requests for use of a meeting room may be made by contacting the Library. Requests will be honored on a first-come, first-served basis.

- Person or groups wishing to reserve a meeting room shall file Meeting Room Scheduling Request Form with the Library Director or his or her agent. [Form attached]
- To reserve the meeting room the person in charge must be over 18 years of age.

- Reservations are accepted up to two months in advance. No groups may use the meeting rooms at intervals so regular that the library becomes its primary meeting space.
- Notice of cancellation should be made as soon as possible. After 30 minutes a group may forfeit its reservation if it fails to appear as scheduled.
- If a group fails to show for two meetings in a row and does not call to cancel, all future reservations are forfeited until the group calls to reschedule. A fee may be charged for organizations which fail to show for two meetings in a row.
- If a group is unable to keep the room reservation, it is requested that they give the Library at least a 24 hour notice. Notice may be given by phone, e-mail or in person.
- Meetings will not be scheduled before or after library hours. Group representatives may not enter the Library building before or after normal operating times unless prior approval has been given by library administration.
- Groups may not assign their reservations to other groups.

Care and Use of Facilities

- Please leave meeting rooms as they are found. If the furniture is rearranged, it should be returned to the original arrangement at the end of the meeting.
- Furniture and/or equipment from the main area of the Library may not be brought into meeting rooms.
- Equipment, supplies, or personal effects cannot be stored or left in library meeting rooms before or after use.
- Attendance at meetings will be limited to the capacity of the individual meeting rooms as listed in this policy.
- Food can be served in the Community Room. If an individual wishes to serve anything other than simple refreshments in any other meeting room, these arrangements must be approved by the Library Director.
- Kitchen facilities or equipment will not be provided by the Library.
- The individual making the reservation, as well as the membership of the group as a whole, will be held responsible for any and all damages that may occur as a result of the use of the facilities.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

Public relations goals of the Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library are:

- To promote a good understanding of the Library's objectives and services among governing officials, civic leaders, and the general public.
- To promote active participation in the varied services offered by the library to people of all ages.

All press inquiries, excluding program publicity, are to be directed to the Library Director and/or Board President and they are the only spokespersons for the Library.

The Board recognizes that public relations involve every person who has connection with the Library. The Board urges its own members and every staff member to realize that he or she represents the library in every public contact. Good service supports good public relations.

Materials to be used by press, radio, or television will be approved by the Director or his/her designee.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURE POLICY

Fire

Do not under-estimate the potential danger to customers or staff represented by a fire. At the first indication of smoke or flame, investigate the situation to determine location and extent of the fire. If the fire can obviously be contained and extinguished quickly and safely by staff, proceed to do so. However, if there is any doubt about whether the fire can be controlled, immediately call 911 or the fire department and then clear the building.

The time to think about fires is before they happen. Familiarize yourself with the type, location, and application of the fire extinguisher(s) in the building. Orient all staff and volunteers to this information

Health Emergencies

Staff members should exercise caution when administering first aid of even a minor nature because of the safety of the injured individual and the potential liability of the staff member. Without specialized training it is not advisable for staff to undertake more than keeping the sick or injured patron comfortable and protected from needless disturbance until medical help can be obtained. Since each case is unique, staff members should use their own judgment to do what is prudent and reasonable.

The Rescue Squad/Police (911) should be called immediately in the event of any serious problem.

No medication, including aspirin, should ever be dispensed to the public.

Bomb Threats

Keep the caller on the line as long as possible. Ask the caller to repeat the message and try to write down every word spoken by the person.

If the caller does not indicate the location of the bomb or the time of possible detonation, ASK FOR THIS INFORMATION.

Listen closely to the voice (male, female), voice quality (calm, excited), accents and speech impediments.

Immediately after the caller hangs up, call the police. Clear the building. The police will handle the actual bomb search.

Other Emergencies

Procedures for physical building and other emergencies can be found in the Disaster Response Plan.

FRIENDS OF THE ROSWELL P. FLOWER MEMORIAL LIBRARY

The Friends of the Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library is a formal association of people who unite to plan and execute, in conjunction with library goals and the needs of the Library Director, programs and events to benefit the library. In particular, the Friends group raises funds and provides volunteers to support the library mission. The Friends group serves at the pleasure of the library board which is the only body with legal authority to set policy for the development of the library.

Re-Adopted by the Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library Board of Trustees, March 8th, 2022

EMERGENCY CLOSING

The closing of the library may be required by natural, mechanical or other emergencies; these situations will be handled as follows:

The responsibility for closing the library rests with the Library Director or designee.

In the event of an emergency situation, the Library Director shall inform the City Manager and the President of the Board of Trustees or an officer as soon as possible as to the reason for such closing.

FINANCIAL POLICY

The Library Board establishes this financial policy to ensure fiscal accountability, appropriate use of funds in support of the Library's mission and goals, and compliance with appropriate laws and ordinances. The library has three budgets: City budget, Board Budget and Central Library (CLD/CBA) budget.

The Director and the Library Board shall establish an annual budget request according to City guidelines and submit it to the City Manager for inclusion in the City's budget.

The Director shall work with the City Manager to seek adoption of the Board's request, reporting any changes or concerns to the Board.

After budget adoption by the City Council, the Director will present the adopted budget for the year to the Library Board for review and approval.

The Board delegates to the Director, the expenditure of monies and the development of an annual collection budget to allocate funds available for library materials and other library expenses.

On an annual basis, all Library funds, expenditures and revenues will be audited as part of the City's audit. Any notes or communications from the City's auditor regarding the Library shall be communicated with the Board. Library finances will also be annually reported to the Department of Library Development.

Board Budget for the Library

The Director and the Library Board shall establish and approve an annual budget.

The Board delegates to the Director the expenditure of monies and the development of an annual collection budget to allocate funds available for library materials and other library expenses.

On an annual basis, all Library funds, expenditures and revenues will be audited as part of the City's audit. Any notes or communications from the City's auditor regarding the Library shall be communicated with the Board. Library finances will also be annually reported to the New York State Department of Library Development.

NCLS Budget for the Library

The Director and the Library Board shall establish and approve an annual Central Library budget.

Once the NCLS Board approves the Central Library budget, the Board delegates to the Director the expenditure of monies for Central Library materials and expenses.

Expenditures

The Director will review and approve all invoices for payment to the City, Board, and North Country Library System, depending on the expense account from which it will be paid.

For city expenditures, the Director and Administrative Secretary will work together with City staff, using City forms and procedures for payment of invoices, and will keep library practices in compliance with City practices and policies.

For board expenditures, upon approval by the Library Director, all invoices will be presented to the Board Treasurer for final review and check signatures prior to payment. The Director will also present a monthly financial report showing the status of all accounts and funds.

NCLS invoices will be stamped, dated and approved prior to being sent to NCLS directly for payment. A monthly report will be sent from NCLS reflecting all expenditures.

The director is authorized to make a single purchase not to exceed $1,500 without Board approval.

Receipts

Monies received as revenue by the Library from overdue fines, general city administrative items such as faxes, and refunds for items purchased with city funds will be submitted to the City as general revenue.

Money received from printing, copies, replacement of library cards, lost or damaged materials paid for by the library board, and other donations will be submitted to the Board of Trustees as revenue and may be used to defray expenses in these areas as authorized by the Library Board. Regular budget lines will be adjusted during the year as necessary to reflect differences between actual and projected revenues. A "Year to Date" revenue report will be presented to the board monthly which reflects these changes.

All donations to the Library shall be subject to the approval of the Library Board per the Gifts Policy.

Staff will track monies donated for the express purpose of purchasing library materials as a "Memorial Fund" and use them only for the purpose for which they have been donated. Staff will request carryover of any unexpended Memorial funds from one fiscal year to the next.

Contracts

The Friends group will sell these materials to raise funds to benefit the Library. Materials deemed by staff or the Friends group to be unfit for sale may be discarded.

The Library Board and Library Director will determine the disposal of all non-city owned property.

Investments

The primary objectives of the Library's financial investments are (in priority order):

Preservation of Capital - The preservation of capital is the foremost objective of the investment program. At no time should the safety of the portfolio's principal investment be impaired or jeopardized. All investments shall be undertaken in a manner that first seeks to preserve capital and secondly attempts to fulfill other investment objectives.

Liquidity - The Library's investment portfolio is to remain sufficiently liquid to enable the Library to meet those operating requirements that might be reasonably anticipated.

Return on Investments (Yield) - The Library's investments should generate the highest available return without sacrificing the first two objectives.

Investments shall be made with judgment and care, under circumstances then prevailing, which persons of prudence, discretion and intelligence might exercise in the management of their own affairs.

Authorized Investments: The following investments are deemed to be suitable for inclusion in the Library's investment program. The Treasurer is authorized to invest Library funds in only those investments specifically delineated below. All investment transactions will be performed on a competitive basis. The competitiveness of each bid or offer will be verified utilizing the various information systems available and by putting eligible institutions in competition with one another to ensure that a market rate is provided.

U.S. Treasury Bills and Notes for which the full faith and credit of the U.S. Government is pledged for the repayment of principal and interest. Bills are short term (one year or less) obligations issued and sold at a discount. Notes have fixed coupon rates with original maturities of between one and five years.

Demand deposit accounts (such as checking accounts) established with local financial institutions.

Certificates of Deposit (CDs) issued by local financial institutions

Reporting:

The Clerk-Treasurer shall provide to the Library's Board of Trustees monthly investment reports which clearly provide the following information regarding the investment portfolio: types of investment, depository institutions, principal balances, rates of return and maturities.

Fixed Assets

The purpose of a fixed asset policy is to establish guidelines for management to follow in recording the purchase price of assets on the organization's records as to whether they are to be capitalized or expensed.

Objective: To expense certain small dollar amounts paid for fixed asset purchases up to $1,000.

Procedure: All fixed asset purchases are to be treated as individual units to determine value. If a purchase is less it will be expensed. If a purchase meets or exceeds $1000 or more, it is to be capitalized and depreciated over the useful life using the straight line method of depreciation.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

It is the Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library's goal to avoid both actual and perceived conflicts of interest in the conduct of its business. A conflict of interest exists in any situation where a trustee or staff member of the Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library has been empowered to make decisions on behalf of the Library and who, as a result of that power, can potentially benefit personally, directly or indirectly, from an entity or person conducting business with the Library. Examples of potential conflicts of interest include, but are not limited to:

1. A Library trustee or staff member provides goods or services to the Library for financial consideration.
2. A friend or relative of a trustee or staff member provides goods or services to the Library for financial consideration.
3. A vendor or business acquaintance with which a trustee or staff member has an outside business relationship provides goods or services to the Library for financial consideration.
4. A trustee or staff member receives a referral fee or other valuable consideration from a vendor, paid promoter, fund raising event sponsor, or any other outside party, for referring the Library business to such party.

All potential conflicts of interest concerning Board trustees are to be reported to the Board president prior to discussion of the issue before the Board. The Board shall rule as to whether the declaration constitutes a conflict of interest. If so, the trustee shall not engage in discussion or vote, and shall be required to withdraw from the meeting for the duration of the debate. All potential conflicts of interest concerning staff are to be reported to the Library Director, who will make a decision - in consultation with the Board if necessary - as to whether the relationship is an appropriate one for the Library. Failure to adhere to this policy will generate further Board review.

I understand the concept of a conflict of interest and represent that I have not been party to a conflict of interest action that has not been previously disclosed. I also agree to report any potential future conflicts of interest to Roswell P. Flower Memorial Library prior to engaging in any conflict of interest action.

CREDIT CARD POLICY

At the request of the Director, any employee might be asked to run errands which require the use of the credit card.

There is one credit card held by the Director or his/her designee. The Director or his/her designee is designated to hand out the card. Approval of use, and amount of expense must be issued by either the Library Director or the Program Coordinator, depending on use.

When used in person, charge slips/receipts must be turned in at the time the card is returned with the initial or signature of the purchaser. When used on-line, the user must print the receipt/ confirmation from the Internet retailer. Also, the user is prohibited from having the credit card information retained for future use with the retailer's account or in the memory of the computer used

The person who made the purchases will inventory the items that have been purchased at local retail stores and match these items against the receipt. The Director or the Administrative Secretary will check this inventory.

When credit card purchases are made, it will not be necessary to use a purchase order number, but a system will be maintained in the Library's Business Office to encumber credit card purchases to charge expenditures against the appropriate budgeted line items. The credit card, though, should only be used for traveling purposes, emergency purchases which cannot be acquired without prepayment, and small local supply purchases when purchasing from vendors with whom the Library has no established credit and when there is not an adequate amount of Petty Cash on hand or for online retailers that require credit cards.

The Sales Tax Exemption information will be given every time the credit card is signed out.

Personal use of the business credit card is prohibited.

LIBRARY BILL OF RIGHTS

The American Library Association affirms that all libraries are forums for information and ideas, and that the following basic policies should guide their services.

I. Books and other library resources should be provided for the interest, information, and enlightenment of all people of the community the library serves. Materials should not be excluded because of the origin, background, or views of those contributing to their creation.

II. Libraries should provide materials and information presenting all points of view on current and historical issues. Materials should not be proscribed or removed because of partisan or doctrinal disapproval.

III. Libraries should challenge censorship in the fulfillment of their responsibility to provide information and enlightenment.

IV. Libraries should cooperate with all persons and groups concerned with resisting abridgment of free expression and free access to ideas.

V. A person's right to use a library should not be denied or abridged because of origin, age, background, or views.

VI. Libraries which make exhibit spaces and meeting rooms available to the public they serve should make such facilities available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting their use.

VII. All people, regardless of origin, age, background, or views, possess a right to privacy and confidentiality in their library use. Libraries should advocate for, educate about, and protect people's privacy, safeguarding all library use data, including personally identifiable information.

An Interpretation of the Library Bill of Rights

The American Library Association supports equal and equitable access to all library resources and services by users of all ages. Library policies and procedures that effectively deny minors equal and equitable access to all library resources and services available to other users is in violation of the American Library Association's Library Bill of Rights. The American Library Association opposes all attempts to restrict access to library services, materials, and facilities based on the age of library users.

Article V of the Library Bill of Rights states, "A person's right to use a library should not be denied or abridged because of origin, age, background, or views." The right to use a library includes free access to, and unrestricted use of, all the services, materials, and facilities the library has to offer. Every restriction on access to, and use of, library resources, based solely on the chronological age, apparent maturity, educational level, literacy skills, emancipatory or other legal status of users violates Article V. This includes minors who do not have a parent or guardian available to sign a library card application or permission slip. Unaccompanied youth experiencing homelessness should be able to obtain a library card regardless of library policies related to chronological age.

School and public libraries are charged with the mission of providing services and resources to meet the diverse interests and informational needs of the communities they serve. Services, materials, and facilities that fulfill the needs and interests of library users at different stages in their personal development are a necessary part of providing library services and should be determined on an individual basis. Equitable access to all library resources and services should not be abridged based on chronological age, apparent maturity, educational level, literacy skills, legal status, or through restrictive scheduling and use policies.

Libraries should not limit the selection and development of library resources simply because minors will have access to them. A library's failure to acquire materials on the grounds that minors may be able to access those materials diminishes the credibility of the library in the community and restricts access for all library users.

Children and young adults unquestionably possess First Amendment rights, including the right to receive information through the library in print, sound, images, data, social media, online applications, games, technologies, programming, and other formats.¹ Constitutionally protected speech cannot be suppressed solely to protect children or young adults from ideas or images a legislative body believes to be unsuitable for them.² Libraries and their library governing bodies should not resort to age restrictions in an effort to avoid actual or anticipated objections, because only a court of law can determine whether or not content is constitutionally protected.

Article VII of the Library Bill of Rights states, "All people, regardless of origin, age, background, or views, possess a right to privacy and confidentiality in their library use." This includes students and minors, who have a right to be free from any unreasonable intrusion into or surveillance of their lawful library use.³

The mission, goals, and objectives of libraries cannot authorize libraries and their governing bodies to assume, abrogate, or overrule the rights and responsibilities of parents and guardians. As "Libraries: An American Value" states, "We affirm the responsibility and the right of all parents and guardians to guide their own children's use of the library and its resources and services."⁴ Libraries and their governing bodies cannot assume the role of parents or the functions of parental authority in the private relationship between parent and child. Libraries and their governing bodies shall ensure that only parents and guardians have the right and the responsibility to determine their children's—and only their children's—access to library resources. Parents and guardians who do not want their children to have access to specific library services, materials, or facilities should so advise their own children. Libraries and library governing bodies should not use rating systems to inhibit a minor's access to materials.⁵

Libraries and their governing bodies have a legal and professional obligation to ensure that all members of the communities they serve have free and equitable access to a diverse range of library resources and services that is inclusive, regardless of content, approach, or format. This principle of library service applies equally to all users, minors as well as adults. Lack of access to information can be harmful to minors. Libraries and their governing bodies must uphold this principle in order to provide adequate and effective service to minors.

THE FREEDOM TO READ STATEMENT

The freedom to read is essential to our democracy. It is continuously under attack. Private groups and public authorities in various parts of the country are working to remove or limit access to reading materials, to censor content in schools, to label "controversial" views, to distribute lists of "objectionable" books or authors, and to purge libraries. These actions apparently rise from a view that our national tradition of free expression is no longer valid; that censorship and suppression are needed to counter threats to safety or national security, as well as to avoid the subversion of politics and the corruption of morals. We, as individuals devoted to reading and as librarians and publishers responsible for disseminating ideas, wish to assert the public interest in the preservation of the freedom to read.

Most attempts at suppression rest on a denial of the fundamental premise of democracy: that the ordinary individual, by exercising critical judgment, will select the good and reject the bad. We trust Americans to recognize propaganda and misinformation, and to make their own decisions about what they read and believe. We do not believe they are prepared to sacrifice their heritage of a free press in order to be "protected" against what others think may be bad for them. We believe they still favor free enterprise in ideas and expression.

These efforts at suppression are related to a larger pattern of pressures being brought against education, the press, art and images, films, broadcast media, and the Internet. The problem is not only one of actual censorship. The shadow of fear cast by these pressures leads, we suspect, to an even larger voluntary curtailment of expression by those who seek to avoid controversy or unwelcome scrutiny by government officials.

Such pressure toward conformity is perhaps natural to a time of accelerated change. And yet suppression is never more dangerous than in such a time of social tension. Freedom has given the United States the elasticity to endure strain. Freedom keeps open the path of novel and creative solutions, and enables change to come by choice. Every silencing of a heresy, every enforcement of an orthodoxy, diminishes the toughness and resilience of our society and leaves it the less able to deal with controversy and difference.

Now as always in our history, reading is among our greatest freedoms. The freedom to read and write is almost the only means for making generally available ideas or manners of expression that can initially command only a small audience. The written word is the natural medium for the new idea and the untried voice from which come the original contributions to social growth. It is essential to the extended discussion that serious thought requires, and to the accumulation of knowledge and ideas into organized collections.

We believe that free communication is essential to the preservation of a free society and a creative culture. We believe that these pressures toward conformity present the danger of limiting the range and variety of inquiry and expression on which our democracy and our culture depend. We believe that every American community must jealously guard the freedom to publish and to circulate, in order to preserve its own freedom to read. We believe that publishers and librarians have a profound responsibility to give validity to that freedom to read by making it possible for the readers to choose freely from a variety of offerings.

The freedom to read is guaranteed by the Constitution. Those with faith in free people will stand firm on these constitutional guarantees of essential rights and will exercise the responsibilities that accompany these rights.

We therefore affirm these propositions:

1. It is in the public interest for publishers and librarians to make available the widest diversity of views and expressions, including those that are unorthodox, unpopular, or considered dangerous by the majority.

Creative thought is by definition new, and what is new is different. The bearer of every new thought is a rebel until that idea is refined and tested. Totalitarian systems attempt to maintain themselves in power by the ruthless suppression of any concept that challenges the established orthodoxy. The power of a democratic system to adapt to change is vastly strengthened by the freedom of its citizens to choose widely from among conflicting opinions offered freely to them. To stifle every nonconformist idea at birth would mark the end of the democratic process. Furthermore, only through the constant activity of weighing and selecting can the democratic mind attain the strength demanded by times like these. We need to know not only what we believe but why we believe it.

2. Publishers, librarians, and booksellers do not need to endorse every idea or presentation they make available. It would conflict with the public interest for them to establish their own political, moral, or aesthetic views as a standard for determining what should be published or circulated.

Publishers and librarians serve the educational process by helping to make available knowledge and ideas required for the growth of the mind and the increase of learning. They do not foster education by imposing as mentors the patterns of their own thought. The people should have the freedom to read and consider a broader range of ideas than those that may be held by any single librarian or publisher or government or church. It is wrong that what one can read should be confined to what another thinks proper.

3. It is contrary to the public interest for publishers or librarians to bar access to writings on the basis of the personal history or political affiliations of the author.

No art or literature can flourish if it is to be measured by the political views or private lives of its creators. No society of free people can flourish that draws up lists of writers to whom it will not listen, whatever they may have to say.

4. There is no place in our society for efforts to coerce the taste of others, to confine adults to the reading matter deemed suitable for adolescents, or to inhibit the efforts of writers to achieve artistic expression.

To some, much of modern expression is shocking. But is not much of life itself shocking? We cut off literature at the source if we prevent writers from dealing with the stuff of life. Parents and teachers have a responsibility to prepare the young to meet the diversity of experiences in life to which they will be exposed, as they have a responsibility to help them learn to think critically for themselves. These are affirmative responsibilities, not to be discharged simply by preventing them from reading works for which they are not yet prepared. In these matters values differ, and values cannot be legislated; nor can machinery be devised that will suit the demands of one group without limiting the freedom of others.

5. It is not in the public interest to force a reader to accept the prejudgment of a label characterizing any expression or its author as subversive or dangerous.

The ideal of labeling presupposes the existence of individuals or groups with wisdom to determine by authority what is good or bad for others. It presupposes that individuals must be directed in making up their minds about the ideas they examine. But Americans do not need others to do their thinking for them.

6. It is the responsibility of publishers and librarians, as guardians of the people's freedom to read, to contest encroachments upon that freedom by individuals or groups seeking to impose their own standards or tastes upon the community at large; and by the government whenever it seeks to reduce or deny public access to public information.

It is inevitable in the give and take of the democratic process that the political, the moral, or the aesthetic concepts of an individual or group will occasionally collide with those of another individual or group. In a free society individuals are free to determine for themselves what they wish to read, and each group is free to determine what it will recommend to its freely associated members. But no group has the right to take the law into its own hands, and to impose its own concept of politics or morality upon other members of a democratic society. Freedom is no freedom if it is accorded only to the accepted and the inoffensive. Further, democratic societies are more safe, free, and creative when the free flow of public information is not restricted by governmental prerogative or self-censorship.

7. It is the responsibility of publishers and librarians to give full meaning to the freedom to read by providing books that enrich the quality and diversity of thought and expression. By the exercise of this affirmative responsibility, they can demonstrate that the answer to a "bad" book is a good one, the answer to a "bad" idea is a good one.

The freedom to read is of little consequence when the reader cannot obtain matter fit for that reader's purpose. What is needed is not only the absence of restraint, but the positive provision of opportunity for the people to read the best that has been thought and said. Books are the major channel by which the intellectual inheritance is handed down, and the principal means of its testing and growth. The defense of the freedom to read requires of all publishers and librarians the utmost of their faculties, and deserves of all Americans the fullest of their support.

We state these propositions neither lightly nor as easy generalizations. We here stake out a lofty claim for the value of the written word. We do so because we believe that it is possessed of enormous variety and usefulness, worthy of cherishing and keeping free. We realize that the application of these propositions may mean the dissemination of ideas and manners of expression that are repugnant to many persons. We do not state these propositions in the comfortable belief that what people read is unimportant. We believe rather that what people read is deeply important; that ideas can be dangerous; but that the suppression of ideas is fatal to a democratic society. Freedom itself is a dangerous way of life, but it is ours.

FREEDOM TO VIEW STATEMENT

The Freedom to View, along with the freedom to speak, to hear, and to read, is protected by the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. In a free society, there is no place for censorship of any medium of expression. Therefore these principles are affirmed:

1. To provide the broadest access to film, video, and other audiovisual materials because they are a means for the communication of ideas. Liberty of circulation is essential to insure the constitutional guarantee of freedom of expression.
2. To protect the confidentiality of all individuals and institutions using film, video, and other audiovisual materials.
3. To provide film, video, and other audiovisual materials which represent a diversity of views and expression. Selection of a work does not constitute or imply agreement with or approval of the content.
4. To provide a diversity of viewpoints without the constraint of labeling or prejudging film, video, or other audiovisual materials on the basis of the moral, religious, or political beliefs of the producer or filmmaker or on the basis of controversial content.
5. To contest vigorously, by all lawful means, every encroachment upon the public's freedom to view.

This statement was originally drafted by the Freedom to View Committee of the American Film and Video Association (formerly the Educational Film Library Association) and was adopted by the AFVA Board of Directors in February 1979. This statement was updated and approved by the AFVA Board of Directors in 1989.

POSITION STATEMENT ON THE DEFENSE OF INTELLECTUAL FREEDOM

The Flower Memorial Library Board of Trustees reaffirms its commitment to protecting and upholding intellectual freedom and the freedom to read. We advocate for the rights of all patrons to access information on a variety of topics and viewpoints without restrictions, which is a fundamental act of participation in a democracy.

With the increasing number of challenges, especially for books regarding race and LGBTQ+ communities, New York's school libraries, public libraries, and librarians are being pressured to censor and restrict access to information. Parents have the right to set restrictions for their own children, but no person or group has the right to deny access to all readers. This principle applies equally to the free access of the information in other types of libraries as well.

Flower Memorial Library is a unique institution of education and knowledge that provides information with impartiality and balance. Library materials are carefully selected by professionally trained librarians to represent a broad range of ideas and opinions and appeal to the needs and interests of all members of the greater Watertown/Jefferson County community. In a democratic society, partisan disagreements cannot dictate the decision to remove such materials.

Therefore, the Trustees of the Flower Memorial Library stand firmly opposed to the restriction, removal, and/or censorship of books and other library materials in an attempt to limit the freedom to read or obstruct intellectual freedom.
